The Farmer's Wife

Is very careful about her churn. She scalds it thoroughly after using, and gives it a sun bath to sweeten it. She knows that if her churn is sour it will taint the butter that is made in it. The stomach is a churn. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are performed processes which are almost exactly like the churning of butter. Is it not apparent then that if this stomach-churn is foul it makes foul all which is put into it?

The evil of a foul stomach is not alone the bad taste in the mouth and the foul breath caused by it, but the corruption of the pure current of blood and the dissemination of disease throughout the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the sour and foul stomach sweet. It does for the stomach what the washing and sun bath do for the churn—absolutely removes every tainting or corrupting element. In this way it cures blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings, sores, or open eating ulcers and all humors or diseases arising from bad blood.

If you have bitter, nasty, foul taste in your mouth, coated tongue, foul breath, are weak and easily tired, feel depressed and despondent, have frequent headaches, dizzy attacks, gnawing or distress in stomach, constipated or irregular bowels, sour or bitter risings after eating and poor appetite, these symptoms, or any considerable number of them, indicate that you are suffering from biliousness, torpid or lazy liver with the usual accompanying indigestion, or dyspepsia and their attendant derangements.

The best agents known to medical science for the cure of the above symptoms and conditions, as attested by the writings of leading teachers and practitioners of all the several schools of medical practice, have been skillfully and harmoniously combined in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That this is absolutely true will be readily proven to your satisfaction if you will but mail a postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free copy of his booklet of extracts from the standard medical authorities, giving the names of all the ingredients entering into his world-famed medicines and showing what the most eminent medical men of the age say of them.

Quick as a Wink

That exactly expresses it. Just as quickly as you can stir the contents of one package of

Jell-O

into a pint of boiling water, you will have prepared a dessert which will surprise and delight all who taste it. When it has become cold it will jellify and be ready to eat. For a more elaborate dessert try the following:

Banana Cream.

Peel five large bananas, rub smooth with five tenspoonfuls of sugar. Add one cup sweet cream beaten to a stiff froth, then one package of Lemon Jell-O dissolved in one and one-half cups of boiling water. Pour in mold or bowl and when cold garnish with candied cherries. Serve with whipped cream.

MAYOR SHORN OF POWER.

Attorney General Bonsparte handed down yesterday his opinion on the much debated right of the Mayor of Glen Echo to fine automobilists who have been speeding at their pleasure over the Conduit road, in defiance of the town's speed limit laws, and also his opinion as to jurisdiction over the Conduit road.

Mr. Bonaparte holds that the mayor of Glen Echo has no authority to impose or collect fines, either for violation of the ordinance of that town, or for offenses against the laws of Maryland. As for the Conduit road, he holds that Congress has exclusive jurisdiction over it, and that it is a public highway, but that it is subject to the control of any officer of the engineer corps, whom the President may direct to take charge of it.

If Bonaparte's suggestion is put into practical effect, the day of the town marshal is over, and the Conduit road both for the mile of it that runs through Glen Echo, and for the remaining 11 miles of its course, may be patrolled hereafter by cavalrymen from Fort Meyer.

Mayor Garrett, of Glen Echo, finds himself under Mr. Bonaparte's opinion with his occupation entirely gone. Not only can he no longer collect fines, but Attorney General Bonaparte points out that inasmuch as he never had any right to collect them, those persons whom he fined are entitled to enter suit to recover the fines either from Mayor Garrett himself or from the town of Glen Echo. Mr. Bonaparte, however, admits that it is not entirely clear if it would be practicable to arrange a satisfactory test case in the premises. Moreover, such proceedings could he instituted only in the courts of Maryland.

The ruling of the Attorney General is not taken seriously by the mayor of Glen Echo. He said last night that he would take no cognizance of the decision until the Supreme Court has heard the case, or he has been informed by Attorney Peter that he is in the wrong, and that in the meantime the town marshal, or as soon as one is appointed to succeed Marshal Collins, resigned, will continue to enforce the regulations as has heretofore been the case.

The Doctor Away from Home when Most Needed.

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like cramp colic and cholera morbus require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Dirrahoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Gibson & Timberman.

WAR RUMORS DENIED.

From the State Department and from the Japanese Embassy in Washington came swift and conclusive denial yesterday of the accuracy of the statement cabled from The Hague to the London Daily Telegraph and reprinted in this country to the effect that Japan has made categorical demands upon the United States government for satisfaction in connection with the treatment of Japanese in San Francisco and has served notice of her intention to deal with the Californians herself if the national government fails to do so.

At the State Department it is said that the American public is fully aware of the nature of all the exchanges that have taken place on this subject; that there has been no correspondence of recent date and that there are no negotiations in progress between the two governments. This statement is fully confirmed at the Japanese Embassy where, moreover, it is positively stated that Ambassador Aoki is not going to Japan next fall as was reported in a Japanese newspaper.

Viscount Aoki authorized the following announcement:

"Viscount Aoki, the Japanese ambassador, has no intention whatever at the present time of going to Japan next fall, or later; he has no intention of offering his resignation to his government, and has had no intimation from either this or his own government that his resignation would be desirable; there is no incident at the present moment between the United States and Japan, never has been, and there is no present prospect that there will be; there is no reason whatever for even suggesting that the Japanese government might look upon the transfer of the Atlantic fleet to the Pacific coarst, or even to the Asiatic station, as an unfriendly act, and the talk of a boycott against American goods in Japan is as absured as talk of war."

Wise Counsel from the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. K. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at E. S. Lerdbeater & Son's drug store.

FRANCE AND THE CHURCH.

"France is not lost to the Catholic Church, and notwithstanding the seemingly irreconcilable differences now existing between the French government and the Vatican," said Abbe Felix Klein, the French clerical writer and scholar, who has just arrived in New York. "The church in France," he said, "will survive the exactions and spoliations of the State," and with the Catholic Church in America as a model, in the future, would develop a strong spirit of freedom and would throw off its dependency on the French government.

Abbe Klein is in this country to give further study to American church institutions, together with the country's moral and civic development, and he hopes to obtain such knowledge as may aid in the solution of the difficulties that now beset the church in France. The Abbe, who has made a profound study of the church system in America, and who has written many works of note on religious life in this country, believes that America will be the dominant power in the Catholic Church in the future unless there is a subsidence of the disposition on the part of the Latin governments to take control of the church. Abbe Klein will be in the United States for four months and will lecture on the religious crisis in France at Chautauqua, Chicago, San Francisco, Boston and several other cities in the United States.

Best Medicine in the World for Colic and Diarrhoea.

"I find Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to be the best remedy in the world," says Mr. C. L. Carter of Skirum, Ala. "I am subject to colic and diarrhoea. Last spring it seemed as though I would die, and I think I would if I hadn't taken Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I haven't been troubled with it since until this week, when I had a severe attack and took half a bottle of the twenty-five cent size Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and this morning I feel like a new man." For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co., and Gibson and Timberman.

PRODUCE DEALERS FINED.

Judge Kimball, in the Washington Police Court, yesterday fined Harry J. Rice and John H. Carter, produce dealers at 936 Louisiana avenue, $150 in two cases in which it was charged by the prosecuting attorney that they had sold strawberries in short measures. The baskets were exhibited in court; they had the bottom bent upward. In their defense the produce dealers said they had bought the baskets in the condition in which they were found, and if there was a fraud they were defrauded as much as the consumer. Judge Kimball set forth that the District had a law prohibiting the sale of produce in short weights and under that law responsibility rests upon the man who makes a sale. He said that it was a dealer's duty to find out whether articles dealt in are full weight and pure.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 11, 1907.

REPRESENTATIVE Japanese are engaged in making denials by the wholesale, concerning their reported hostility toward this country. Ambassador Aoki flatly contradicts an assortment of stories relating to himself, and America and Japanese diplomatic officials declare that there is no foundation for an alleged bellicose declaration by Japan. The Hocht of Tokio withdraws the Sakamota interview and will eulogize the American navy. The word "peace" epitomizes Admiral Baron Gonbey Yamamoto's first interview in America yesterday. "I wish you would all do your best for peace" were his opening words to the newspaper men who met him in the smoking-room of the Cunander Carmania even before he set foot on United States soil. The Japanese are no more likely to go off half-cocked than the people of any other nation. They have no cause to rupture the present friendly relations existing between the two countries, and the movement of a United States fleet to American possessions in the Orient is by no means a casus belli.

MOYER was placed on the stand in Boise, Idaho, yesterday, and, of course, flatly denied all Orchard had said implicating him in the killing of former Governor Steunenberg. Moyer may or may not have told the truth, but the fact that Orchard is a confessed outlaw is not proof within itself that his evidence was a fabrication. The famous Vidocq was for a time the companion of bad men. He later acted with the authorities in rounding up outlaws who infested Paris in his day, and when he published his memoirs, the truth of many of his statements was questioned for no other reason than the fact that he had previously led a questionable life. Vidocq, however, gave names, dates and localities, and described robberies still fresh in the minds of the Parisians, and time proved that his memoirs were in the main correct. Orchard also tells of events of recent occurrence, and the murders he has described as well as the acts of certain outlaws are mattters of history. What has been said of Vidocq may also be said of him.

THE SCHEME for a monument to Wm. Penn in Westminister Abbey has evoked some adverse criticism of a singular kind. It is claimed that the English will not welcome the monument, because Penn's character in England was very different from the idea of him entertained in this country. It is asserted that he was a sort of pardon broker—a go-between between the courtiers of James II. and persons who were engaged in the Monmouth rebellion. This assertion is based on Macaulay's history of England. It has been shown since Macaulay published his history that his attack on William Penn was the result of precipitancy—that he read of a certain individual bearing that name who at one time made himself objectionable to the better class of English people and assumed he was the man who played a conspicious part in the early history of this country. It is now generally admitted that Macaulay's excoriations of the Quaker were unfounded.

THE trial of Mary E. Bowie and her son, Henry Bowie, for the killing of Hubert Posey on January 18, on the road leading from Pisgah to Indian Head, Md., began in La Plata yesterday. It is believed that the trial will end tomorrow. The unwritten law is the plea of the defense. It generally takes but little time in certain portions of Maryland to conduct murder trials. Heretofore there have been no pleas of brainstorm, dementia Americana, &c. About forty years ago when several negroes were arraigned at Upper Marlboro for the killing of William Lyles, an old gentleman, who often visited this city, the trial and execution were not railroaded, but simply expedited, and Alexandria witnesses lost but little time in attendance upon court.

A DISPATCH from Johannesburg, Transvaal, says that a series of dynamite outrages have recently occurred in the vicinity of the mines, the white workmen in which are on strike. The Crown Hotel, at Boksburg, and the water main supplying the Simmer and Jack mines were destroyed by explosions, which did much damage and injured several persons. At about the same time attempts were made, without success, to destroy the shaft and engine-house of the Casson mine, and the shaft of the Modderfontein mine. A feeling of anxiety prevails throughout the district. Dynamite and strikes are playing a serious part in the twentieth century. They are not confined to any locality, but are terrorizing quiet people in far-away south Africa.

AT DES MOINES, on Tuesday, Congressman Hull, chairman of the House committee on military affairs said:

Neither Japan nor the United States wants a war at this time. There is a big element in Japan who would welcome war, but the ruling classes are too wise to pick a quarrel with the United States. If there is war, we will at first lose the Philippines and the Hawaiian Islands, but we should triumph in the end, for the United States would build warships and fight out a victory. We are the only nation which can conduct a war and get rich at the same time.

And the last mentioned thing is the one which is actuating the jingoes in their efforts to bring about a war. There are always a comparatively few people who make money out of a war, but the great masses are the sufferers.

DETERMINED to have an absolutely tight lid in Clear Lake, Iowa, Sunday, Mayor Young has prohibited the janitor from ringing the church bells. Many townspeople are bitterly opposed to the Sunday closing fight. Mayor Young and Editor Leavenport, leaders of the campaign, have both been hanged in effigy. The above is a specimen of the radical ideas of some people regarding Sunday.

NINE years ago democrats protested that the acquisition of the Philippines and Hawaii would make the country more vulnerable on the Pacific. The imperialists pretended that it would strengthen us. Does any one doubt now that the democrats were right? asks the Philadelphia Record. The Atlantic coast must be stripped of battleships to protect our Pacific islands.

THE PRESIDENT yesterday showed his ability to wield the pitchfork as well as the big stick. He aided in harvesting ten loads of hay on his farm at East Norwich. About 2 o'clock the President entered the field. He was dressed in a white suit and a white negligee shirt and tie to match and worked with the field hands until covered with dust and perspiration.

AND now a woman in Maryland who with her son shot and killed a young man whom she charged with wronging her daughter has pleaded not guilty of murder under the unwritten law. One of these days some one whose only defense is this unwritten law will be hanged and that will put a stop to this nonsense that has been permitted too long already.

IN PRUSSIA they not only pay the fidddler when they dance, but the municipality also. In that country they tax everything and even a dance does not escape. Anybody getting up a ball must pay the "rejoicing duty." The duty is levied as a municipal rate.

From Washington.

[Correspondende of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, July 11.

E. H. Harriman, the big railroad magnate, will know within a few days, whether the government intends to prosecute him and his combination of roads. He will certsinly find out what the Interstate Commerce Commissioners think about him and his methods, for members of the commission admitted today that their report on the Harriman cases has been completed, and is now in the hands of the printer, and will be made public early next week. That he will be vigorously denounced by the President, there seems to be no doubt. The greatest secrecy is being maintained as to the contents of the report and the conclusions reached by the commission. It includes a lengthy review of the facts as contained during the investigation and it is said to severely criticise Harriman's methods. It can not be definitely ascertained, however, whether the commission calls upon the Department of Justice to institute suits for the dissolution of any of his combinations or mergers, or, whether, after laying down all the facts, it leaves to the law officers of the government to determine whether they constitute such a showing as to make a prosecution advisable. Two of the cases which have been criticised by the commission, the San Pedro contract with the Oregon short line and the dual control of the Alton road by the Union Pacific and Rock Island roads, have already been abrogated, but the question remains as to whether those agreements having been admittedly illegal, suit can still be brought against Harriman and his associates for the wrongful acts done by them. The summer recess of the Interstate Commission began today at noon, and by Saturday all of the members will have left this city, except Chairman Knapp and Commissioner Clements.

The grand jury today returned an indictment against Col. Charles A. Edwards, secretary of the national democratic committee, charging an assault with a dangerous weapon some months ago upon Alexandro Garland, an attache of the Peruvian legation.

Attorney General Bonaparte has decided to appeal to the Supreme Court the case of Edward S. Thayer, of Dallas, Tex., who was charged with soliciting campaign contributions in government buildings. Thayer was a member of the republican State executive committee and addressed letters to officeholders demanding contributions for the campaign. Usually his demand was for five cents of their salary. He was charged with violating the civil service laws but U. S. District Judge Meek sustained a demurrer to the indictment. It is from this ruling that an appeal will be taken.

Attorney General Bonaparte left this afternoon on his vacation. He will not return until August 5th. He will spend a week at Casenovia, N. Y., and will then proceed to Lenox. The suit against the Harvester trust, which has been directed by the Attorney General, it now seems likely will not be filed before fall on account of time of the attorneys being occupied with other matters. The bill against the powder trust is now in the hands of the printer and action will be taken in the near future to bring the matter into the courts.

According to reports here Consul General Wynne, at London, is soon to lose his place. It is said the relations between Ambassador Reid and Mr. Wynn are not cordial and that Mr. Reid deliberately snubbed Mr. Wynne and his wife by not inviting them to the Fourth of July dinner and also that the Ambassador was responsible for the absence of Mr. Wynne to meet Mark Twain. Rumor has the Commissioner of Pensions as Wynne's successor.

An indictment charging assult with a dangerous weapon was returned by the grand jury today against Col. Charles A. Edwards, secretary of the Democratic Congressional Committe. NO TWO-CENT RATE.

As stated in the Gazette of that day the restraining order against the enforcement of the requirement by the State Corporation Commission of a uniform two cent passenger rate on the railroads in Virginia was continued yesterday by a decision of Judge Pritchard, of the United States Court of Appeals, sitting in Richmond. He said it was not his purpose "to attribute any unworthy motive to those who framed the provision of the constitution authorizing the creation of the Corporation Commission of Virginia," but it became his duty to ascertain the effect of that provision. "The courts," he said, "cannot consider motive or public policy in dealing with questions of this character, but must be guided solely in construing them by the limitation imposed by the federal constitution." The decision, which, the court stated, would ultimately be carried to the Supreme Court of the United States, held that, in fixing rates involved in this case, the Corporation Commission was exercising a legislative function, not acting as a court, and its acts are administrative, and the court, therefore, has jurisdiction.

The decision of Judge Pritchard was a surprise to many. Railroad men are pleased with the result, and it looks as though the whole matter will have to be gone over again. The matter is not ended, but will figure in the courts till it finally is adjusted in the Supreme Court of the United States. The decision is a blow to the people of the State, as the powers of the Corporation Commission are nullified by the injunction which is made permanent by Judge Pritchard until the further order of the court.

The rehearing of the matter will consume a great deal of time, and will involve the State in enormous expense, as there are hundreds of minute details and classifications and rates and various things to be ventilated.

If the opinion of Judge Pritchard is ultimately sustained by the Supreme Court of the United States, the Virginia State Corporation Commission will be shorn of all its powers as a judicial body. In fact, the very existence of the body will be threatened, and it will be divested of all power to regulate the railroads operating in Virginia.

Judge Pritchard holds that the Corporation Commission under the provisions of the Virginia constitution has no right to exercise the functions of a court; that its functions are only legislative and that, therefore, it was not acting as a court when it attempted to put into effect the reduced rates on the railroads. The eminent jurist submits his views with great diffidence, however, for he admits that the questions involved are of vast importance. He even goes so far as to express pleasure at the fact that the cases will ultimately go to the United States Supreme Court. The effect of the opinion as it stands will be to continue the restraining order formerly granted at the request of the railroads.

Had Judge Pritchard held that the Corporation Commission was a regularly constituted court, his tribunal, under a well established doctrine of law, could not have enjoined its actions; but holding, as he does, the United States Circuit Court now takes jurisdiction in the premises.

In commenting upon Judge Pritchard's decision regarding the two cent rate order of the Virginia State Corporation Commission, State Senator Lewis H. Machen said today:

"The press reports of the decision yesterday indicated that the State Corporation Commission was without constitutional authority to formulate the order fixing the rate. It appears from the extracts of the decision printed in this morning's papers that the decision of this question has been postponed and only the question of jurisdiction has been decided. If it should be finally determined that the State Corporation Commission has no constitutional authority to prescribe a rate the next General Assembly of Virginia should enact a flat two cent rate law conforming as nearly as possible to the order of the Commission. The Commission after a painstaking investigation has determined that such a statue would be reasonable, and in fact such rates are now in force in a number of States not more densely populated than Virginia. The Burlington Road which traverses eleven western states announced yesterday that it would put in operation a two cent fare schedule between all points on that system. Eventually the railroads will find the new rate a source of profit to them because of increased travel. The general public, too, will be vastly benefited."

MR. BARR AND THE EXPOSITION

Mr. James M. Barr, who has been invited to become the director general of the Jamestown Exposition and who is considering the proposition, is in Washington to have a consultation with Secretary Cortelyou before giving the board of directors of the exposition company his final answer. Mr. Barr stated yesterday in Norfolk that it was his intention to have a discussion with the Secretary of the Treasury in regard to the exposition, but would not go into details, saying that things might not turn out as he expects they will, for, he intimated, upon the Secretary's decision will depend his answer in regard to accepting the responsiblity for the conducting of the exposition. Just before leaving the exposition grounds Mr. Barr was waited upon by a committe from the various concessionaries, who urged him to take the director generalship, pledging not only their moral support, but stating that, if neccessary, they would raise a fund for him. Mr. Barr replied that in view of of his acceptance he would do all he could to co-operate with them, and thanked them for their intrest in the Exposition.

Demonstration Interdicted.

Ottawa, Ont., July 11.—The Mayor of Buckingham, near here, today issued an edict to the effect that there must be no demonstration tomorrow in celebration of Orangemen's Day for fear serious trouble would result.

The feeling has been high in Buckingham for some time and the mayor received information that the Orangemen were planning to make a big show and parade their colors in the faces of the opposing elements. The mayor also heard that the Irish Catholics and the French Canadians were preparing for the event and that they were "ready for trouble."

It is expected that troops will be sent from this city to police the town, as the situation is believed to be critical. The order of the mayor served to stir up resentment and it was reported today that an effort would be made to hold the demonstrations, nevertheless. Demonstrations have been forbidden in several other cities, including Montreal.

The Bowie Trial.

La Plata, Md., July 11.—Mrs. Mollie Bowie took the stand today in defense of herself and her son, Henry Bowie, jointly charged with the killing of Hubert] Posey, the betrayer of Miss Priscilla Bowie, the daughter and sister of the defendants.

The preliminaries were entirely devoid of clap-trap. There were no insanity experts and no plea of "dementia Americana". The defendants stand on a plain, unbefuddled plea of justification under the "unwritten law" of the South. They admit the killing and justify it by an alienable right to protect the sanctity ot the home.

Following her testimony her son, Henry, will testify and it is expected that the case will be in the hands of the jury sometime tomorrow.

Priscilla Bowie, the star witness in the trial of her mother, broke down when called to the witness stand today and became so hysterical that a temporary adjournment was taken.

Preparing for War!

London, July 11.—Extensive emergency orders for Welsh steam coal to be sent to the Philippines have been placed by the United States, according to the Central News. Extreme significance is attached to the action in view of the critical status of the dispute between the United States and Japan. The order, it is stated, calls for the shipment of 40,000 tons of coal immediately. So anxious is the United States to get the coal to the Philippines that steamers have been chartered especially to carry it.

Simultaneously, according to the same authority, large orders have been sent by the United States to New Castle, New South Wales, for coal to be delivered at some point on the western coast of South America.

Lloyds are insuring vessels bound to the Philippines against war risks. The rates range from 13 pence to half a crown per cent. on vessels clearing for Manila.

Moyer on the Stand.

Boise, Idaho, July 11.—Under a fire of cross-examination President Charles H. Moyer, of the Western Federation of Miners, is sticking to the story he told on the witness stand for the defense in the Haywood case yesterday. Moyer's testimony was designed to substantiate the defense's claim that violence was countenanced neither by the miners federation nor by any of its officers and to support the contention that a monster conspiracy existed among the mine owners to break up the federation. He gave Orchard the direct lie. That he carried arms at various times, he admitted He did so, he said, only to protect himself against the beatings that were inflicted on many members of the miners' organization supposedly by agents of the mine owners. The cross-examination is expected to occupy most of today. Haywood will follow Moyer on the stand.

Bodies in the Ruins.

Philadelphia, July 11.—Just how many perished in yesterday's collapse of the Bridgeman Brother's Company unfinished four-story concrete building is yet uncertain. Thus far there are but two bodies at the morgue. Three more men are known to be buried in the ruins, and there is no hope of reaching them alive. A possibility exists that still others perished of whom the foreman in charge of construction work have no record. Thirty men are known to have been hurt. Of these two will die. Minor injuries were suffered by nearly every workman on the building. The collapse was due to the removal of props from under green concrete girders at the top floor. This caused the roof to fall and the reinforced concrete construction below was so flimsy that a whole section of the building tumbled into the basement.

Investigating Mrs. Hancock's Death.

London, July 11.—The verdict of the Kensington coroner's court today that Mrs. Walter Swinburn Hancock, wife of a former Chicago Episcopalian minister, came to her death by natural causes will probably release Hancock from the police surveillance he has been under ever since a suspicion that Mrs. Hancock had been poisoned was raised by her son. An autopsy failed to reveal any trace of poison and the verdict was returned in accordance with the death certificate of the attending physician that death resulted from blood poisoning following appendicitis.

Supposed Dead Man Appears.

Wilmington, Del., July 11.—Just as the coroner's jury was to hold an inquest yesterday over two men, Isaac Delcors and Walter Evans, who were supposed to have been cremated in the fire which destroyed the big barn upon the Morrow farm, near Newark, Del., on Saturday night, when bones were exhibited upon the table of the room in which the inquest was to be held, supposed to be parts of the charred remains of the men, one of the men, Delcors, strolled into the room and for a time caused much excitement among those gathered there.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Entombed Alive.

Florence, Italy, July 11.—Search for the Marchioness Magdalen Castellare, the beautiful and accomplished member of the Italian nobility, ended today beside a grave. The Marchioness was entombed alive with a corpse. Her body was found today in the coffin with Signor Rossi, a banker, who died a few days before her recent disappearance. Her face convulsed with terror and her limbs distorted with the frightful efforts she evidently made for liberty, the unfortunate woman's expression and attitude bear testimony to the agony of her struggle with death. The exact nature of the accident which cost the woman's life can never be known. It is conjectured that she visited the cemetery to pray at the grave of her dead sweetheart, Count Franchi, wandered by mistake into the vault in which Rossi's coffin lay, swooned when she saw the corpse in the open coffin and fell into the casket and upon the banker's body. Attendants, presumably in darkness, closed the lid without seeing the Marchioness.

The marchioness' fate would probably never have been known had not Rossi's family decided to open his coffin for the last time today before sealing it up in its niche in the vault. Such was the shock of the horrible discovery which followed the lifting of the lid that one of Rossi's daughters fainted and is now in a critical condition at her home. A cemetery attendant who aided in closing the coffin the night the marchioness visited the place has gone temporarily mad and raves constantly of the awful error which cost the woman's life.

Mysterious Shooting.

Worcester, Mass., July 11.—From a rather ordinary murder case the shooting of Charles L. Burnap at Lake Quinsigamond has developed into both a romance and a mystery. Although Mary Brennan, a waitress at a hotel near the one where the dead man was staying, confessed to the police yesterday that she did the shooting. The story she told was so unusual that the authorities persisted in their investigation and today unearthed additional facts which indicate that in spite of her confession Miss Brennan is not the real culprit. As soon as Frank Kelly, a Shrewsbury special policeman, heard of the Brennan girl's confession, he told the police that he had been with the girl at the time of her alleged accidental shooting of Burnap. He contradicted her story and declared that she never carried a pistol. Confronted with this contradiction, Miss Brennan retracted her former story and declared she had told it to shield Kelly or some one else who was the dead man's rival for her favor. A witness has been found who said he heard a man's voice talking to Burnap just before he heard shots in the room. It is reported that Kelly has told the police that the shooting was done in his presence by a man whose name cannot be ascertained.

Bride Released.

New York, July 11.—Released today from a small attic room where she was held ten days for ransom, Olia Lisco Halmere, 15-year-old bride of a few months, today begged the police to search for her husband, Raphael Halmere, who she believes has been driven mad by the Black Hand. Detective Doyle while searching for her by chance saw her peering from an attic window. He rescued her, and at her instance Luigi Tenna was arrested on the charge of abduction and black mail. She said Tenna forced her by threats of death to go with him. The father said Tenna demanded $500 as the price of the young bride's life. The girl says her husband disappeared suddenly a few days before her abduction, and she fears he fell into the clutches of the Black Hand.

Seven Miners Die.

Freeland, Pa., July 11.—White damp is believed to have caused the death of seven miners in the mine of the Lehigh Wilkesbarre Coal Company today. One body has been recovered and searchers are looking for the others. The victims are Leo, a foreman, and six Italians. Men are sent into the mine every morning to measure the water. When two men failed to appear two other men were sent in. Then Leo and a party followed. It was then discovered that the mine was full of the deadly gasses. Leo and four companies were overcome. Several members of the party started out to tell of the misfortune to their fellow workmen.

Double Murder.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 11.—While sitting in front of his saloon here early today Peter Forrestel was stabbed to death by Geo. Hodson, who was intoxicated. Hodson after stabbing Forrestel ran upstairs in the saloon and into the room occupied by Marie Smith. He plunged a knife twice into her abdomen and she died within an hour. Hodson was jealous of Forrestel and the Smith woman. Forrestel was well known to the sporting fraternity both in this country and England.

Toledo, O., July 11.—Glidden tour cars left Toledo for a 166-mile ride to South Bend, Ind., at 7 a. m. today. A light rain was falling and the roads will be heavy. Only one car that, started from Cleveland failed to start from here, a Stoddard-Dayton runabout. W. Hock, driving a Derea car, was all in, but arrived today in time to line up for the second days' run. Bernard Sutton, who elected to run his Welch car into a steel bridge rather than into a small boy at Hessville, came in ten minutes over the time and lost on two points. O. S. Johnson, in a Cosinent, was twenty-four minutes late. All other cars were from one to two hours ahead of the schedule.

Camp Guss, Perkasie, Pa., July 11.—It was learned today that Private Alfred T. Lewis, of Company F, Second Regiment, was killed last night by falling fifty feet from the top of Tunnelli Hill to the Reading Railway tracks during a furious rain storm. Lewis and Harrison Reidenbach, also of Company F, lost their way while returning to camp and both fell over the embankment. Lewis was killed instantly. He lived in Philadelphia. Reidenbach apparently escaped with a lacerated scalp and general confusions, but may have sustained internal injuries.

Great Blast.

Lancaster, Pa., July 11.—The greatest single blast ever fired in Lancaster county was set off yesterday at Fite's Eddy, along the Susquehanna river, when 300 tons of powder and dynamite were discharged in blowing up a long wedge of rocks along the line of the New Columbia and Port Deposit Railroad. In the operations on the new low-grade Pennsylvania freight road some tremendous blasts were made, but none approached this in the quanity of the explosive used at any one time. Workmen have been engaged for months preparing for this operation, a cam drills having opened innumerable holes in the hill. Many days were required to fill these holes with explosives. The earth shook for miles, as if with an earthquake, and the face of the hill was completely transformed by the convulsions.

Nihilist Convention.

London, July 11.—English soil is to offer a refuge for Russian nihilists and anarchists to plan for the assassination of Russian officials. A monster convention of the reds is to be held in London next month to plan for the resumption of the Russian reign of terror. It is doubtful if ever in history more murders have been planned at one meeting than will be determined on at this London conference, nor do the reds disguise the fact. Fifteen hundred delegates will attend, and it will be the most notorious gathering of criminals ever held under sanction of law. No person can be a delegate unless he has been imprisoned at least twice for crimes against persons.

BOY'S TERRIBLE FATE

After climbing to the top of a tall trolley pole besides the New York Central Railroad, at 213th street New York, eleven-year-old Mark De Lucia was roasted to death in sight of his playmates, who had dared him to climb the pole to get a bird's nest. Mark climbed the pole, and finally reached the cross piece where the nest was supported by the cross arm. As he stretched out his hand to grasp the nest, he took hold of one of the wires to keep himself from falling. Instantly there was a flash. The body twisted and swung, and finally lodged across two of the wires back downward, while from the twitching legs and arms played flames, which gave forth a heavy smoke. His death was instantaneous.

CONDEMNATORY RESOLUTIONS.

Resolutions condemnatory to the administration of the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Electric Railway were passed at the Citizens' Association meeting at Ballston last night for the purpose of adopting the formal protest framed by R. C. L. Moncure, the attorney, who conducted the people's case at the injury into the fatal accident, on July 4, at Alexandria county courthouse.

Three citizens will be chosen from among the following men to present the protests before the corporation commission of Virginia, at Richmond, next Saturday: George T. Phillips and R. C. L. Moncure, of Clarendon; Charles L. Semmes, Glencarlyn; Frank Lyon, Fort Myer Heights, and Dr. Wellburne, of Ballston.

These men will meet to-morrow at Dr. Wellburne's home in Ballston and elect the three members of the committee which shall go to Richmond.

The Falls Church Association will take similar action tonight in passing the resolutions adopted by the associations of the other towns.

The resolutions will be presented in the following form:

Be it resolved, That this association hereby condemns the system in use upon the said railway; the action of its officials in discriminating against the Rosslyn line in favor of the Twelfth street line; the failure to supply sufficient power for the operation of said road; the absence of a proper signaling system, and the old and antiquated cars, and respectfully petitions the corporation commission of the State of Virginia to take such action as may give proper relief to the patrons of this road, and respectfully submits its opinion that unless prompt action is taken by said commission that great danger will result to the public in the way of a recurrence of the above-mentioned accident.

MR. TAYLOR'S WEDDING.

Mr. Archibald H. Taylor, formerly of this city, but now one of the most widely known lawyers of Baltimore and also prominent for his activity in public affairs, was married at noon yesterday to Miss Mary M. Parker at the bride's residence in Port Chester, N. Y., by the venerable Archdeacon Kirkby. He was attended by his brother, Mr. Julian Taylor, of Alexandria, as best man. Among those present were the members of a party who went from Baltimore with Mr. Taylor, consisting of his sister, Miss Taylor; Mr. DeCourcy W. Thom, Dr. William F. Lockwood and Mr. Douglas H. Gordon, of Baltimore; Hon. W. A. Jones, of Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. H. Snowden Marshall, of New York, and Mr. William Corcoran Welling and Miss Elsa Welling, of Hartford, Conn. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. James Parker, of Boston. A small party of her friends were present. After the wedding the guests sat down to a breakfast. The bride and bridegroom soon departed on their wedding trip, which will possibly include a short tour of Europe. In the early autumn Mr. and Mrs. Taylor expect to be settled in their home in Baltimore.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

A very pretty birthday party was given at the residence of Mr. John T. Boyd, on Queen street, last night, the occasion being the fifth anniversary of the birth of their granddaughter, Lillie Mildred Cradlin. During the evening refreshments were served and a delightful time was spent by those in attendance. Among those present were little Misses Mary Kell, Sarah Edmunds, Mary Thomas, Margarette Phillips, Inez and Anna Pierpoint, Hilda Norris, Pheobe Goodrich, Alice Harden, Merlin Harden, Helen and Mabel Potter, Stella Schreiner, May and Eleanor Mander, Greta Ludwig, and Masters Willie Cradlin, Jack Morgan, George Wells, John Edmunds, Reginald Padgett, Courtney Self, Raymond Peverill, Thurman Kell, Alpheus Harden, Harold Wells, Walter Pierpoint Peverill Roberts, Walter Sullivan and Milton Penn.

NO BOAT RACE.

It appears that the report circulated yesterday to the effect that there would be a race at 11 o'clock this morning between motor boats owned by Messrs. Bruce Emerson and Wm. Moore was the work of a practical joker. Mr. Emerson's boat made a trial trip by running a short distance down the river but there was no race. It is said the engine of the other boat was out of order. A number of people sought shady retreats on the Strand this morning for the purpose of witnessing the contest that had been announced. This brings to mind a wholesale sell which was perpetrated about twelve ago. It had been announced that a submarine boat would appear off Fishtown at 7 o'clock in the evening, made a dive and emerge to the surface at Jones's Point. The water front was lined with would-be spectators, but the performance did not take place.

CORPORATION COURT.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

J. Albert Henderson vs. Annie S. Henderson; decree submitting an offer of $[illegible].300 for the purchase of the property of $[illegible] 909 south Patrick street to Wallace Hook [illegible] and confirming sale to Hook and appointing Howard W. Smith, special commissioner, to convey property.

J. A. Henderson vs. Annie S. Henderson; second suit; decree consolidating this with the first suit and appointing Edmund Burke, K. Kemper, [illegible] O. Carlin and Howard W. Smith to sell certain ground rent.

MEETING OF TRADES COUNCIL.

The discharge of theunion employes of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway is still a matter of discussion among the members of the labor unions of this city, and a meeting of the Trades Council will be held tonight for the further consideration of the matter. The principal subject of discussion, it is stated, will be a report from a committee representing President King, of the road, as declaring that he alone was responsible for the dismissal of the men, and adding that he did not contemplate reinstating any of those discharged.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Tucker, with their daughters, Miss Doris and Grayce, and their sister, Miss Minnie Padgett, of Washington, and Mrs. E. H. Hammond, and son Willie, of this city, left this morning for Colonial Beach, where they will spend the summer.

Miss E. A. Deakins has gone to Hyattsville, Md., to spend the summer.

Mrs. F. S. Risdon and son, Ernest, of this city are visiting the family of Mr. W. C. Feagans, at Wheatland, near Charlestown, W. Va.

Mr. Ernest Evans and Miss Grace Penn were married last night at the parsonage of the Baptist Church by Rev. Dr. Fisher.

The son of former Policeman William Mayhugh continues extremely ill.

Mrs. M. F. Ticer left last evening to visit her son, Mr. W. L. Ticer, who is now located in Beckley, W. Va. She will also visit in Charleston while gone.

THE WEATHER.

There was a refreshing rain last night, accompanied by a beautiful electric display. The cloud formed southwest of this city, and for several hours the heavens were aglow with lightning, while the sound of thunder was incessant. The clouds were finally wafted over this city and vicinity when a cooling breeze afforded much relief from the sweltering conditions which had prevailed during yesterday and the early portion of last night. The duration of the rainfall was brief, but conditions followed which rendered sleep more pleasant than during the previous night.

People from lower Fairfax county who visited this city today say the rainfall was heavy. It was accompanied by a high wind. There was another heavy rain about 1 o'clock this morning.

COMPLAINT AGAINST RAILWAY.

Immediate action with regard to the service on the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church electric railway will be demanded Saturday from the corporation commission of Virginia by a committee of three which will go to Richmond for the purpose. The members of the committee will be appointed by the Citizens' Association at Clarendon, Falls Church and Ballston, one from each body. Resolutions condemnatory of the administration of the road and calling upon the corporation to act were adopted Monday night by the Clarendon Citizens' Association. The Ballston Association, it is expected, will take similar action tonight and tomorrow night the Falls Church Association will enter its formal protest.

GUS ROBINSON SAFE.

Gus Robinson, a young man, of this city, who left Culpeper Tuesday night perched on top of a northbound Southern Railway passenger train reached his home on south Patrick street safe and sound. His companion on the trip, Edward Lynn, of 326 south Patrick street, took the chance of falling from the train and went to sleep some time before reaching this city. He was discovered, still asleep, when the train stopped in Washington. It is stated that the two young men left this city for Culpeper a few days ago to attend the horse show at that place.

A young man, who had been arrested Tuesday charged with discharging a pistol in the street, had his case again postponed by the absence of a female witness.

PHILIPPINES A BURDEN.

The Anti-Imperialist League at Boston on Tuesday made an appeal for action against "the continued and indefinite retention of the Philippine Islands." The appeal says, in part:

"The immense and unprofitable burden of these possessions has never been felt more strongly than today, but in the popular apprehension that the United States might have become involved in war it is now realized that their defense would demand an almost impossible military and naval force on the other side of the globe. The absurdity of an enormous sacrifice of life and treasure to defend a territory whose relations to the United States—a relationship which is deplored by the great majority of our own liberty-loving citizens—has become patent. A sale to Japan has been suggested in many quarters as a method of escaping from the dilemma. But to sell 8,000,000 people and their homes to any one is clearly immoral and contrary to American principles.

There is one simple, just and practical method of relief for both countries, which we urge with renewed emphasis, viz.: A pledge of early and complete independence to the Philippines, together with a "neutralization" by all the great powers, including Japan. It is clearly demonstrated that there is a large and influential class of educated Filipinos, who are able to guide their fellow-citizens in self-government.

CHINESE SEVEN AGES.

A French officer, Louis de Chantilly, tells in Paris Gill Blas of his discovery in a Buddhist convent in the mountains of Tonkin of a dusty manuscript containing the Chinese version of the seven ages of man. "At 10 years old," says the writer, whose name has been forgotten, "the boy has a heart and a brain as soft as the tender shoots of a young bamboo. At 20 he is like a green banana; he is just beginning to ripen in warm rays of common sense. Thirty years sees him developed into a buffalo. He is strong and lusty, full of bodily and mental vigor. This is the true age of love; the age for him to marry at. At 40 years, the prosperous man has grown to be a mandarin and wears a coral button. But it would be truly indiscreet to confide to him at this early age any functions calling for judicial intelligence or calm. When he reaches 50 years, however, although he has grown stout and fleshy, he is fit to hold any municipal or state office; he can administer a city or a province or preform any official duty. But at 60 years he is old. Handicrafts and all active bodily activities are beyond him. He gives his dependents and clients advice. That is all he is fit for. At 70 he is just a dry rice straw. He has only one care; to husband the breath of life that is left to him, to preserve it, even by artificial means. His sons must assume the care of his estate and the performance of his duties."

PASSED THROUGH AN OILED SEA.

Captain Mader, of the United Fruit Company's steamer Admiral Farragut, at Philadelphia from Port Antonio, reported that when 30 miles south of Diamond Shoal lightship last Saturday the vessel passed through a lake of oil. The water as far as the eye could see was as quiet as a millpond, the oil stretching in all directions for miles. As soon as the incident was reported agents of tank steamers trading to Texas became alarmed for fear that one of their vessels had met with disaster, but all of the steamers have been accounted for. No sign of wreckage was reported by the Admiral Farragut.

The oil seen off Cape Hatteras shoals by Captain Mader, of the steamship Admiral Farragut, is believed by Captain Jarvis, of the steamer Florida, to have come from the oil-laden barge Providence, which was sunk near the outer Diamond shoals last winter. It is thought that the barge is now beginning to break up and that the oil is coming to the surface of the water. The Florida had the Providence in tow when she foundered.

CROSSES ON TREES.

The first case on record in the county of religious fervor leading a convert into the police court, came up in Danielson, Conn., yesterday, when James Callunis, a Greek, aged 65 years, was before the town court charged with cutting Greek crosses in the trees on the highway and thus wilfully destroying them. Callunis who has been in the country but four months, explained through an interpreter that he found so much trouble and wickedness in this country that he thought by cutting crosses in the trees where everyone could see them he would bring about peace and righteousness. The crosses have been mysteriously appearing on the fine trees along the roads all about Danielson. The crosses varied from a foot in length to 20 inches. Callunis says he cut them after dusk with a hatchet. There are one or more of them in front of nearly every church in the vicinity while many have been cut in the cemeteries. The tree warden says it will take 20 years for them to become effaced. Callunis was held under $1,000 bail for trial.

Shopping.

Shopping is a form of cruelty indulged by married ladies toward their husbands. It is incipient in young girls, reaches an active condition in brides and arrives at its most virulent stage between the tenth and the twenty-fifth year of married life. A small, delicate, slight, nervous, sensitive woman who would faint away at an empty mouse trap will go through the shopping district in from two to seven hours and come out refreshed and sustained by an unfaltering trust if her husband's credit is good, while that gentleman at the end of forty-five minutes has to be carried home on a stretcher. Some women are born shoppers, others achieve it, but not one of them has it thrust upon her. Shopping is extensively practiced on week days, beginning on Monday with a rush and ending on Saturday in time for the opera. It promotes industry. Without it married men would have time to rest.—Delineator.

Shooting a Rabbit.

In Sullivan county there is a man who spent a whole day hunting, and at nightfall he was returning homeward empty handed when he found a rabbit in a snare and still kicking. He released it and was about to dispatch it with the back of his hand when it occurred to him that he could not say he shot it, as no shot marks would be found to corroborate his story. So he tied a string to one of the hind legs of the rabbit, tied the other end to the fence, backed away twenty yards and fired. The shot cut the string and bunny ran away. Such a good joke on himself was too good to keep, and he told it at the village grocery, little thinking that it would be handed about, until now if you want to anger him the mere mention of the yarn opens the old sore.—Forest and Stream.

Practicing by Ear.

When Grover Cleveland was practicing law at Buffalo among his associates was a young lawyer who, though a bright fellow, was rather inclined to laziness. He was forever bothering Cleveland about points of law rather than look them up himself. At last Cleveland became tired of it, and the next time the young man sauntered in Cleveland knew what he wanted and, getting up, pointed to his bookcase and said: "There are my books. You are welcome to them. You can read up your own case." The fellow was caught, but he rose to the occasion. "See here, Grover Cleveland," he said, "I want you to understand I don't read law. I practice entirely by ear, and you and your books can go to thunder!"

Women Rule as Babies Do.

The ordinary man would still much rather glorify women and set them on a mock throne, whence he can depose them at will, than have to acknowledge in them a real title to regard. It is difficult for a man to overcome his essential self importance. Most of us perhaps prefer to have inferiors round us—an abject trait of character, but natural. And only very slowly have we men been getting to prefer our womankind as friends and equals rather than as queens and pets, ruling us as a baby or a spoiled dog does.—London Saturday Review.

A Clever Hint.

"You are so popular," sighs the swain. "You have so many suitors!"

"The idea!" smiles the fair young thing. "Why, I can count them all on the fingers of my left hand. See. The index finger is Mr. Smugforth, the second finger is Mr. Balder, and the third finger—the third finger of my left hand—the third finger is you."

Next day he got the ring for it.—Chicago Post.

News to Him.

"The beauty of this great and glorious republic," said the American proudly, "is that any boy born here may become president."

"Fawncy!" excaimed the British tourist. "I was under the impression that the president had to be at least forty years of age."—Catholic Standard and Times.

A Philosopher.

A philosopher is a man who when he has hard luck, due to his own carelessness and idiocy and other shortcomings, can blame it all on fate.—Somerville Journal.

Nobody Else to Look Like.

She—Mr. Dudleigh is looking more like himself, don't you think? Chappie—Ya-as. His twin brother is dead.—Puck.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptons only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.
